Important information:

1. Wizz Air offers you the option of setting higher liability limits for checked-in baggage (here referring to baggage not the items included in the baggage).
2. You should fill in the High Value Declaration form and pay for the fees incurred which will increase the carrier's liability limits to the declared value but will not exceed the maximum amount of 2500 EUR (equivalent of approx. 2010 SDR) per check in bag.
3. A High Value Declaration form will be only accepted after verification by airport agent on-site. Wizz Air reserves the right to check the declared item prior to departure.
4. In the event of a damage/claim you will need to provide proof of value (purchase receipt) for mentioned item.
5. A High Value Declaration is valid for one continuous flight journey in one direction.
6. In the event of damages, Wizz Air will reimburse the costs of repair for the affected bag. If the bag is irreparable, Wizz Air will reimburse you for the fair market value up to the amount stated in the High Value Declaration Form. The fair market value shall be the replacement cost of the items minus depreciation for age and normal wear and tear.
7. Wizz Air General Conditions of Carriage apply.
8. In case of bag loss – compensation is due as per GCC rules.
9. In case of bag delay – compensation is due as per GCC rules.
10. In case of more than 1 bag declared as High Value Item a form has to be filled in separately for each of bags.

I confirm that I have read, understood and that I accept the above stated rules and conditions
